

John 4:25-30
OUTLINE
6.18.23

1. _____% of youth suicides are from fatherless homes.

“To be a man, is to be a man of God!” -Paul Washer

2. Worship should be both _____ and aligned with correct theological understanding.

POINT 1- God seeks true worshippers who worship Him in both _____ and _____, emphasizing that genuine worship is characterized by heartfelt sincerity and a firm foundation in the truth.

3. The Samaritans thought the Messiah would be the new _____ and would restore true worship on Mt. Gerizim by teaching and revealing the truths of God.
 - Isaiah 41:4, Revelation 1:8, John 8:44, John 8:58, John 10:30,31-33
4. Jesus made the claim to be _____, and it was this claim that ultimately led to His crucifixion.
5. God fulfills His desires and purposes without _____.

POINT 2- Jesus reveals Himself as the " _____ " and offers living water to the Samaritan woman, who becomes a witness for Him, demonstrating the importance of sincere worship and personal transformation through faith.

6. The woman exemplifies the act of leading people to Jesus by simply telling them about Him and sharing what He has _____ in her life.
 - John 3:3, 1 Corinthians 2:14, Matthew 10:32-33
7. As believers, it is important not only to confess Jesus publicly but also to _____ our faith in a way that brings glory to God and bears the fruit of a transformed life.
8. What really matters is our willingness to share what we _____ and to let the Holy Spirit work through us as we point others to Jesus.

POINT 3- The Samaritan woman's encounter with Jesus leads her to share her _____ and invite others to meet Him, emphasizing personal transformation and the call for believers to proclaim the message of Jesus.

- Isaiah 1:18, Mark 10:21, Matthew 11:28, Hebrews 8:10,12