

John 7:37-53
OUTLINE
12.10.23

1. The branches are symbolic of people living out the word of God and producing _____.
 - Isaiah 12:3, 1 Corinthians 10:3-4, Revelation 22:17, Psalm 63:1
2. Sin keeps us from having a _____ for God; instead, we have a thirst and hunger for the things of the world.

POINT 1- Jesus invites all to come and drink from the living water, but they must be thirsty for God, as sin often leads to worldly desires that can never _____.

There are three verbs here that correspond to three actions.

- _____
 - Come.
 - Drink.
3. Drinking is _____ and believing is drinking.
 4. We must remember, for the true Christian, from our innermost being will flow rivers of _____ water.
 5. “The Spirit” is referencing to the Holy Spirit which is the third person of the _____.
 6. The Pharisees are thoroughly perplexed at the failure of the officers to _____ Jesus.

POINT 2- Jesus' teachings sparked _____ and diverse beliefs among the people, underscoring the significance of discerning the true nature of Jesus.