

John 8:1-11
OUTLINE
12.17.23

1. It's very rare that we see _____ like this in the Bible, but this also confirms that everything else that we read that's not marked out are the original manuscripts and the inspired words of God.

POINT 1- God addresses culpable sinners through the lens of _____ and _____ embodied in the Lord Jesus Christ.

2. We should, if at all possible, read _____ and _____ in the morning before we go about our day.
3. Not all scribes were Pharisees; they were often called _____ and were experts in interpreting the law.
 - John 8:44, Zechariah 3:1, Hebrews 4:12-13
4. Jesus was certainly not opposing the law; he was opposing the very _____ who sought to pervert it.
 - Matthew 12:34
5. Jesus was the only sinless person in this temple scene, and instead of condemning the woman, he looked ahead to his ultimate work on the _____ and offered her life.
 - Romans 9:15
6. We should always avoid using the Word of God to destroy people in pursuit of our own _____.

POINT 2- We need to extend _____ to people and conduct ourselves with loving kindness even to those who have opposing views.

7. Jesus always looks with compassion on the lost _____.
 - Matthew 9:36, 1 John 4:8